

Company, mining brokers, at No. 44 Broadway. It was said that Charles H. Stoneham was a member of the firm. A member of the firm said that Stoneham was married and lived in Jersey City.

Mrs. Stoneham called at her husband's office during the day and had a long conference with Mr. Bramberger, her husband's partner. After she had left Bramberger said that Mrs. Stoneham had read of the shooting in the newspapers, and had hurried over from Jersey City to try to keep her husband from going to the hospital. She did not learn that Mrs. Gray was dead until she reached the office. Bramberger said that when Mrs. Stoneham left the office she went to meet her husband. He said that she had told him she intended to stand by her husband and do all she could for him.

Mrs. Grace Sanford, who lives at No. 62 West Sixty-sixth Street, said that she knew Mrs. Gray very well. She said that Mrs. Gray's husband, who was a wealthy Chicago man, died in May of last year at New Orleans, and in July after his death, Mrs. Gray came to New York and took apartments with her. She stayed until some time after Thanksgiving.

"Mrs. Gray met Charles Stoneham in the early fall," said Mrs. Sanford. "He is a Jersey City man, married and with a family. A few days ago, a little son of his was drowned, and after the son's death he determined to give up Mrs. Gray. He called her up and told her so. Mrs. Gray threatened to commit suicide unless he returned to her."

Sister of Dead Woman.

(By Associated Press.) NEW ORLEANS, La., May 6.—Mrs. Anny Parker, living at No. 193 St. Andrews Street, admitted today that she was a sister of Mrs. J. W. Gray, the hotel Imperial suicide. Miss Olivia Parker, a beautiful young woman of twenty, who lives with her in the person to whom Mrs. Gray desired her personal effects, furniture and money to be forwarded. Mrs. Parker insisted emphatically that she and her daughter were not orphans, but white. With respect to the reference in Mrs. Gray's letter to Olivia Parker as a colored girl, and her statement that she had no relatives, Mrs. Parker said that her sister evidently desired to spare their feelings. She said her brother referred to in the Boston dispatches, died some time ago. Mrs. Parker said her sister was born in New Orleans. She came of excellent people. She was reared and educated in the Ursuline Convent. About fifteen years ago, when she was seventeen years of age, she was married to W. W. Gray, a wealthy Chicagoan. She visited her occasionally during the winter months. Mrs. Parker said Mrs. Gray's husband had lavished diamonds and other jewelry upon her, and that she must have had many of these articles when she came to New York. She said she knew of Mrs. Gray's affair with Stoneham. He had written her numerous love letters, and is said to have promised to marry her. Mrs. Gray at first believing him an unmarried man. Mrs. Gray was a sister of Mrs. J. W. Gray, the hotel Imperial suicide. She was a sister of Mrs. J. W. Gray, the hotel Imperial suicide. She was a sister of Mrs. J. W. Gray, the hotel Imperial suicide.

Identity Established.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, Mass., May 6.—The identity of the hotel Imperial suicide in New York as Mrs. J. W. Gray, of Chicago, and formerly of New Orleans, established here today by Letitia P. Stone, a dressmaker, at No. 63 Humboldt Avenue, Roxbury, which address was found upon a letter in the room occupied by Mrs. Gray in the New York hotel. Miss Stone said that she had been a close friend of the woman for years and had received a letter from her, written from the hotel Imperial, only a few days ago. Mrs. Gray was the widow. Miss Stone said, who died several years ago. Before her marriage she lived in New Orleans. She was a member of a French family whose name Miss Stone could not recall to-day, but she was able to state that Mrs. Gray had a married sister living in New Orleans and a brother in Mexico.

INCANDESCENT GAS ON STREETS OF LONDON

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.) PARIS, May 6.—Steps are now being taken to honor the memory of the late Jules Verne in several parts of France. Nantes, his native place, is to have a statue and a commemorative tablet on the house in which he was born. Chantenay, where he passed his early life, will have a "Rue Jules Verne," and Amiens, where he died, is to have a "Boulevard Jules Verne."

The author left a large lot of unpublished works, including a dozen plays, of which nine are in verse, also eleven volumes of the "Voyages Extraordinary" series.

O. H. BERRY & CO.

FROM NORTON, VA., TO CHARLESTON S. C.

Railroad Chartered With an Immense Capital.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., May 6.—The biggest corporation chartered in North Carolina in a great while was today given corporate life, it being the Charleston, Virginia and Ohio River Railroad, with principal office at Morgantown. The capital is $2,500,000. The charter tax paid the State amounted to $40. It is chartered for ninety-nine years, and proposes to construct and operate a road from Charleston, S. C., to Norton, Va. The road is to be 140 miles of road in North Carolina, 130 in South Carolina, 70 miles in Tennessee, and 50 miles in Virginia—140 miles from Charleston to Norton.

The counties to be traversed in North Carolina are Gaston, Cleveland, Burke, Caldwell, Mitchell and Watauga. In South Carolina are Berkeley, Charleston, Clarendon, Sumpter, Kershaw, Chester, York and possibly Lancaster. Also Johnson and Carter counties, Tennessee. The company is to begin business when $200,000 is paid in for the capital stock, and the incorporators and stock subscribers are: W. C. Erwin, two shares; H. L. Miller, ten shares; E. P. Tate, two shares; Sochanton, W. T. Hunter, 1,500 shares; Joseph F. Govan, 1,500 shares; and Robert Regney, 1,500 shares, New York.

TE DEUMS OF PRAISE.

Long Continued Drought Broken in Pulaski County.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DUBLIN, Va., May 6.—T. F. Main, of Wytheville, and G. W. McGinley, of Pulaski, are shipping from this place 46,000 feet of very fine white oak logs, from twenty-four to forty inches in diameter, all purchased of Charles H. King. They are also shipping about the same amount of walnut logs and stumps. Some of these logs are for export, others for vener logs at various points.

Many teams are engaged in hauling lumber from various local mills for shipment here, so that the lumber business easily ranks first in importance in our busy little town just at this time.

Te deums are in order, for the distressing drought is broken, and while the rainfall as yet is slight, the indications are that it will be well broken. For a year or more precipitation has been below the normal, and during last winter a large percentage fell on frozen ground and ran off. Cisterns as a rule contain a short supply, ponds and springs are dry which were never dry before, and all are low. Much water hauling has been done, and some farmers have been compelled to go long distances for water for stock.

Forest fires have been raging, entailing considerable loss in timber and fences. A large area on Cloyd's Mountain has been burned over, furnishing a magnificent spectacle by night and plenty of fighting at all hours for the farmers in the adjoining Buck Creek Valley.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

New York Detective Guest of the Olympia Club.

FUNERALS THIS AFTERNOON

Police Board to Hold Interesting Meeting—Southside News.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street. Sergeant Edward P. Hughes, of the secret service of New York, was a visitor here last night as the guest of Sergeant Alex. Wright. Sergeant Hughes stopped over on his way to Norfolk, where he went in the famous case of the Elsiebeths. The case is that of a young son of the millionaire's in New York running away from home and joining the navy at the age of sixteen. For nearly two years his parents had been looking for him, and finally he was located in Portsmouth. Sergeant Hughes accompanied the boy's parents to Portsmouth, and then went to Washington to try to get the boy back home. The efforts of the detective will probably effect the release of the young man from the navy.

Sergeant Hughes was a guest of the Olympia Club for awhile last night, and was turned over to the city of Richmond by Sergeant Wright last night. He will probably be in the hands of Detective Gibson, Wren of the city.

Police Board to Meet.

The Police Board will meet on Wednesday night in postponed session from last week. There will be some interesting things to come up at this meeting, in which the Chief and the Sergeant will figure.

Olympia Club.

The advance guard of the Olympia Club will meet this week and make arrangements to go to the seaside this summer. There will be a bigger time than ever before, as the club will have more accommodations.

Drunks Arrested.

The police had only two arrests to their credit last night, and both of them were drunks. One was the old timer, Leslie Garber, who had just been released by Justice John in Richmond. The cases will be before the Mayor tomorrow morning.

Death of Mrs. Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Matthews, of Chesterfield county, left last night for Baltimore, called there by the death of Mrs. Dora Matthews, the loved mother of Mr. Matthews, and Mrs. Rosa Haberkam, both well known in Manchester. Mrs. Matthews visited here last October and made many friends, who will regret to hear of her loss.

Personals and Briefs.

The case of the man named L. M. Burruss, charged with hitting a man with a weight, went over in the Police Court yesterday to Monday morning.

D. S. Smith, charged with conducting business without a license, was laid over to next Thursday.

SALVATION ARMY HEAD THINKS NAN INNOCENT

Miss Eva Booth Pays Visit to Florodora Girl in the Tombs.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, May 6.—Miss Eva Booth, head of the Salvation Army in the United States, called at the Tombs prison today and had a long conference with Nan Patterson, Abraham Levy, Miss Patterson's attorney, was present, "to see that the girl said nothing that she should not say," he explained to the visitor.

"You're a good objector," broke in Miss Patterson, "and I hope you will stop me if I am not careful, what I say."

"You need have no fear," replied Miss Booth, "that I will encourage her to say anything she should not. I am here only to make her see that I can. My interest is only spiritual. I assure you."

After the interview had ended, Miss Booth said:

"I do not believe that girl is a murderer. She is built from much better material than is usually found in these cases. I believe her innocent of the murder of Caesar Young."

Dr. O'Hanlon, the coroner's physician, who testified for the prosecution in all three trials, in the presence of clerks and several other persons in the coroner's office today said:

"Now that the trial is over, I feel free to say that all along I believed that the revolver which fired the bullet was in the hands of Young. My reason is from the powder marks I found on one of Young's fingers on the day he was killed."

Let Buildings Burn.

Fire to-night broke out in the coal yard at the Peabody Coal Company, at Twenty-eighth Street and the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks. The damage was $200. A large crowd gathered, but no one would turn in an alarm because the feeling against the coal company, which is a strong factor in the teamsters' strike. The blaze was seen from a distance by a policeman, who called the fire department. The police declared that the fire was caused by an incendiary, but they had no direct proof.

A Preceptor, Ill. man owns a dog to which he is greatly attached. Recently, when the animal was sick, he took it to a veterinary surgeon. He told him the dog was a thoroughbred, and gave him the dog a thorough washing, and commenced to cause a burning sensation. With a yelp of agony the animal broke away and ran down the street, going straight to the veterinary who had given him relief previously. He tried to make the veterinary understand that he required relief, but was unable to do so until after the arrival of his master.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

To Prove What the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of the Times-Dispatch May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Absolutely Free by Mail.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fall to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

I was out of health and run down generally; had no appetite, no energy, no sleep, no rest, no health. I did not know that my kidneys were the cause of my trouble, but somehow I felt that they might be, and I began taking Swamp-Root. There was such a pleasant taste to Swamp-Root, and it goes right to the spot and drives disease out of the system. It has cured me, making me stronger and better in every way, and I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Gratefully yours.

MRS. A. L. WALKER, 331 East Linden St. Atlanta, Ga.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for many kinds of diseases, and it permitted to continue much suffering and fatal results are sure to follow. Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Makes you weak and run down, and the disease obliges you to get up many times during the night. Unhealthy kidneys cause rheumatism, gravel, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints and muscles; make your head ache and back ache, cause indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, you get a yellow, yellow complexion, make you feel as though you had heart trouble; you may have plenty of ambition, but no strength; get weak and waste away.

The cure for these troubles is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the world-famous kidney remedy. In taking Swamp-Root you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that is known to medical science.

How to Find Out.

If there is any doubt in your mind as to your condition, take from your urine on rising about four ounces, place it in a glass or bottle and let it stand twenty-four hours. If on examination it is milky or cloudy, if there is a brick-dust settling, or if small particles float about in it, your kidneys are in need of immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended by physicians in their private practice, and is taken by doctors whose names have kidney ailments, because they recognize in it the greatest and most successful remedy for kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

EDITORIAL NOTE.—So successful is Swamp-Root in promptly curing even the most distressing cases of kidney, liver or bladder troubles, that to prove its wonderful merits you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. The value and success of Swamp-Root is so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample bottle. In sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say you read this generous offer in the Richmond Sunday Times-Dispatch. The genuineness of this offer is guaranteed.

AMERICAN MUSIC IN JAPAN

Mabel McKinley's Composition "Karama" Featured by Tokio Bands and Orchestras.

Very few persons know that the melody of one of the most famous instrumental compositions written since the dawn of the "Bird," and which has been echoing through the cities of the United States for the past six months, was written by a woman of prominence. Up to the present time has concealed her identity. The name of the composition so familiar to every pianist and musician, that has been the work of a woman, is Mabel McKinley, niece of the late President.

"Karama," first appeared upon the market several months ago. It bore upon its title page the pen-name "Vivian Grey," but as its fame spread and the royalty was paid, the name of the author, Mabel McKinley, was revealed.

The union would get out of town. All teamsters now working for the Employers' Association, according to the alleged plan, should be allowed to retain their places without interference by the unions, and all strikers should be reinstated for the period of twenty-four hours. At the expiration of this brief period the employers were to be free to discharge all the union men they desired.

Mayor Orders Investigation. President Shea, when the charges made against him were brought to his attention, declared with vehemence that there was not a single word of truth in them.

Mmes. Matrat and Piere wished M. Soulaire to change his method of doing business, and to conform to their ideas. M. Soulaire was much nettled and refused to change, saying: "I give lessons, not receive them."

M. Carre, manager of the Opera Comique, threatened to cancel his engagement, which should have run to the end of the year. A lawsuit will ensue.

A stormy scene took place this week on the stage of the Varieties Theatre during a rehearsal of the "Ago d'Or," by Pierre, Georges Feydeau and Maurice Desvallieres. Because the piece was too long, a well known dramatic author, M. Pierre Decourcelle, was called in by the management to apply the pruning knife. This action, which heartily burning to the authors, which finally vented itself by M. Desvallieres striking M. Decourcelle in the face.

Seconds were appointed, but Desvallieres later apologized, and so the incident was closed.

WHY WE RECOMMEND ORRINE TO CURE DRUNKENNESS.

In taking the agency for Orrine, the liquor habit cure, we thoroughly satisfied ourselves that it was an article of genuine merit, and that the company, which is located in Washington, D. C., deals squarely and lives up strictly to the guarantee. "If the cure is not made the money will be refunded."

Since selling Orrine numerous cases have come to our knowledge that have been cured of the horrible liquor habit by this meritorious article, which strengthens the nervous system and drives the craving for whiskey, beer or other alcoholic stimulants. Orrine is prepared in two forms, No. 1 and No. 2, given to cure the patient without his knowledge. It can be put into coffee or food, as it is tasteless, colorless and odorless.

We think that when the excessive drinker is approached properly he will be willing to be cured. If he consents, purchase Orrine No. 1, which is put up in pill form. Either form sells at $1 per package. Step into our store and receive full information regarding Orrine, the remedy that really cures the liquor habit. If you will write to the Orrine Company, Inc., Washington, D. C., they will send you free a book on "Drunkenness," in a plain paper wrapper.

We have great confidence that Orrine cures the drink habit, and highly recommend it to you.

Gamble's Hills Win.

A very interesting game of base ball was played on the Lee Monument field yesterday evening between the Gamble's Hill team and the First Street team, the latter being defeated by the score of 3 to 2. The features of the game were Phillips and Norries' batting and the playing of Dalton for the First Street.

The fine catching of Glassbrook, excellent pitching of Jones and a sensational catch by Gilliam for the Gamble's Hill. Leake, the all round player and captain of the Gamble's Hill team, was the star of the game, hitting his leg in the last game.

lost no opportunity to arrest non-union men. It is said by members of the Employers' Association that captains and lieutenants of police have been derelict in their duty in the suppression of disorder and the charges will be filed against a number of officers before the Police Trial Board.

The charges against the labor leaders are to the effect that they planned an ostensible settlement of the strike which would give them the credit of gaining a victory, but which would, in reality, leave all members of the union who have been on strike out of the money. The plan, as stated by several members of the Employers' Association, and which they assert came from President Shea, of the Teamsters' Union, was to call the strike off for twenty-four hours, during which time the leaders of

A North Carolina Lad Who Got Stranded in Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, Va., May 6.—Mrs. Bertha M. Holly, a handsome woman, stylishly dressed, arrived here this morning from New York and solicited the aid of Chief of Police Boush in finding Krantz, a traveling soap salesman for Swift & Co., Chicago, who had left New York with a watch which she had loaned to him. She declined to tell her name for publication, but learned that the young man, who is married, had gone to Newport News. The question with the police here is whether she wanted the watch or the man? She did not bring a warrant for either.

She and a detective found the man in Newport News and got a pawn ticket for a watch from him. The woman, who is handsome and stylish, said that while in New York together the chain of her watch broke and she asked Krantz to put the watch in his pocket for safety. It was a valuable watch, and she came here seeking it. Krantz says he pawned it in Baltimore, and Mrs. Holly has gone to Baltimore to redeem it.

STRANDED.

Heber Jones, a nineteen-year-old youth, who ran away from his home in Little, Washington, N. C., two weeks ago, and came to Norfolk with $2 to see "a little of the world," was found asleep early this morning in a coal shed on Roper's Dock and sent to police headquarters. Young Jones said he had spent the last of his money yesterday and that he would like to get back to his home in Washington. He said he must have been crazy to run away, and he did not wish to news "to get over to the States," but afterwards told his father's name in the hope of being sent for. He was detained as a vagrant.

HUNG HIMSELF TO TREE.

John Hunge, a native of Sweden, and a prosperous farmer at North Landing, near the Virginia-North Carolina line, was found hanging to a tree this morning dead. The evidence was that he had committed suicide. He owned his farm, was not in debt, lived happily with his wife and five children, and the only cause for suicide was recent ill health. He was well last night and went to bed at 9 o'clock. He was not seen afterwards until the farm hands discovered the body.

Paris Season Series of Disputes Among Stage Folk

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.) PARIS, May 6.—The Paris theatrical season commenced badly this year and its end has been no better than the beginning. With the exception of the Comedie Francaise, which is scoring a great success, the season has been a series of disappointments. There is nothing worthy of remark. Other theatres are already renewing their bills, though only for a month. Whether this is due to war, to Bourgeois difficulties or to the temper, it is impossible to determine. Theatrical activity just now.

The Laola brothers, proprietors of the Folies Bergeres and the Olympia, have sold those noted music halls to M. Paul Fies, proprietor of the Casino de Paris, the Quintana and a few more music halls. The Ruez combination is described as a music hall trust, and as such is having difficulties with the Societe des Auteurs Compositors et Editeurs de Musique.

Composers, coming immediately after the struggle of the Societe des Auteurs Dramatiques against the "theatre trust," is being watched with greatest interest.

The "touching" of some artists when cornered was exemplified this week by the noted baritone, Soulaire, whose engagement at the Opera Comique has been cancelled owing to the disputes between the author and composer respectively of "La Coupe Enchantee," now in rehearsal.

Mmes. Matrat and Piere wished M. Soulaire to change his method of doing business, and to conform to their ideas. M. Soulaire was much nettled and refused to change, saying: "I give lessons, not receive them."
